

Power over Parkinson's Award Dinner

Saturday, April 29, 2017 in Atlanta, GA

“Your Support Could be a Game Changer”

Event Details:

- 🔗 Ritz Carlton Buckhead, Atlanta – April 29, 2017
- 🔗 Dinner Honoring Herschel Bloom, retired partner King & Spalding Associate Head Coach of the East Cobb Yankees
- 🔗 Special Honorary Chair: Senator Johnny Isakson (he is public about his Parkinson's and will open the evening)
- 🔗 Program to include dinner, video tribute, speakers and live auction.
- 🔗 Event Chairs: Sully & Gordon Beckham and Co-Chairs Lisa Buddy Avery

Goal:

- 🔗 This special evening will showcase Parkinson's and the NEW Parkinson's Foundation as a Key Stakeholder/Donor Event. This will also be among the first events we launch for the public phase of “Changing the Course of Parkinson's Treatment.”
- 🔗 Stretch Goal to raise $500,000*
- 🔗 Participation: 250-300 guests attend the event.

Event Background:

 Gordon Beckham, a PF Board Member, brought this idea to NPF and has been working on it since 2015

Sponsors:

We will engage national partners, including Atlanta-based UCB but will also work NEW National/Regional companies based in Atlanta and SE Region.

Your support could be a game changer.

SAVE THE DATE

April 29, 2017

Ritz-Carlton, Buckhead

DINNER HONORING
HERSCHEL BLOOM

*Retired partner King & Spalding
Associate Head Coach of the East Cobb Yankees*

